

Honor An American Veteran

On July 20th & 21st The Hay Creek Valley Historical Association will be honoring our brave military veterans at the “We Remember World War II” Commemorative event at Joanna Furnace. You can participate in this exciting event by sponsoring a luminary bag for a loved one who participated in any American war or who is currently serving in the military. Each luminary will be on display during the event and each service man will be honored at a special ceremony on Saturday evening at 8 pm.
